

Orfeus Balkan Ensemble - Sparkling virtuosic Bulgarian folk music!

When Orfeus Balkan Ensemble gives concert, you can experience true Bulgarian folk music: Lots of amazing beats and tonalities, wild solos as well as funny and gripping folk songs.

The Balkans - and not least Bulgaria - are known throughout the world for their amazing folk music. Music that is nuanced, equilibristic, complex, melodic, with contagious energy and great emotional depth.

Orfeus Balkan Ensemble, formed in 2014, consists of 2 Danish and 2 Bulgarian musicians, all of whom have devoted their lives to this music and entered deeply into its secrets and master it on a high professional level.

Last year Orfeus released his first album "Zakachka" ("Teasing") - and went on tour in Serbia and Bulgaria, where they have gained popularity - the band is popular among Bulgarians in Denmark as well.

The music comes from all parts of Bulgaria - rooted in ancient tradition - and in contact with modern folk music of 2018. The repertoire features arrangements of old folk songs, popular hits and own compositions - both authentic and at the same time with the band's own sound. The character of the music moves between the extremes - from slow ballads over beautiful melodic songs to breathtakingly virtuosic instrumental numbers with improvised solos in all the Balkans' complex rhythms.

During the concert, the audience will become part of the musicians' great knowledge - that will be told vividly about the songs, the history, the music and the very special meters ...

Read more at: <http://orfeusbalkanensemble.dk/>